

Improve Productivity with Automated Identity Management

Pro-Watch® 4.3 Identity Management Portal

Save Time with a Smarter Approval Process

Eliminate the hassle of processing access rights manually with the Honeywell Pro-Watch Identity Management Portal. Now, you can manage identities the modern way by automating your approval process to save time and eliminate errors. You can easily check access rights, recent activity, and pending tasks with one system. Better yet, approvers get an email notification when a status changes, so you don't have to waste time searching for status updates. It's identity management made quick and easy.
