

BOOST CONFIDENCE WITH SMARTLINE

SmartLine Extended Product Warranties

Honeywell

SMARTLINE EXTENDED PRODUCT WARRANTIES

To boost your confidence and efficiency, choose an extended warranty option for your SmartLine transmitters – and protect your investment even after your factory warranty has expired.

WHY CHOOSE A SMARTLINE TOGETHER WITH EXTENDED PRODUCT WARRANTY?

Boost your efficiency: Extended product warranties enable you to lower your total cost of ownership for your SmartLine transmitters.

Manage obsolescence: Reduce your maintenance costs for your transmitters up to 40%.

Expand the lifespan of your instrumentation: Up to 15 years.

Peace of mind: Extended warranty options offer peace of mind and exploitation easiness, letting you focus on other key tasks.

Best in class quality and reliability: Proven by over 40 years of industry experience and up to 3 million devices installed globally.

WARRANTY OPTIONS

Available for 1,2,3,4, and 15-year extended coverage plans, the selectable extended warranty options cover the entire SmartLine portfolio. Choosing the extended product warranties options will not just bring you peace of mind; it will also help you lower your total cost of ownership.

SMARTLINE TRANSMITTERS: SO SMART, THEY MAKE LIFE EASY.

SmartLine transmitters let you focus on running your plant. With their superior performance, innovative design and unparalleled user experience, SmartLine transmitters improve yield, reduce downtime, and lower your overall costs. And above all, they improve safety.

To help you find the right Honeywell SmartLine® transmitter for your application, we've created the SmartLine Application and Validation Tool (AVT) for your use. AVT is a license & password-free cloud-based tool that can help you in selecting and configuring the right transmitters for your needs.
