Honeywell Eyewash
Expiration Timer

The Eyewash Expiration Timer provides simple, effective visual management for emergency eyewash, helping to ensure OSHA & CCOHS compliance in the workplace. Featuring a highly-visible LCD screen and color-coded LED maintenance indicators to alert safety managers and supervisory personnel when the usable life of eyewash solution nears expiration – saving time on manual inspections, decreasing reliance on expiration stickers, and reducing the risk of human error in maintaining the availability of emergency eyewash.
